November 2026

Dear Friends,

There is a familiar refrain in our home; it goes something like this: "You said you'd do (insert an activity, a meal out or a movie night), don't you remember?" I can't remember agreeing to be the driver and the cash machine, but my children know just when to ask, so I say yes without much thought and commit myself. This scenario has never happened to my husband – he is a pro at saying No!

My husband tells me to write down my plans for the week in our family calendar so everyone can help me remember my commitments, but I seem to have a knack for not remembering to do that little task, which means I suddenly remember a meeting two hours before it begins. Date night is once again rescheduled. And I tell my dear husband I will do better next time.

November is the month we remember – we gather as a community to remember those who have died at our Service of Remembrance for Departed loved ones on Saturday 31st October; we remember the service and sacrifices of the Armed Forces community from the UK and the Commonwealth and those who have lost their lives on Sunday 8th November; and we are reminded of our own mortality as another year comes to an end.

Remembering is good – the capacity to recall what has been, the joys and delights of the year, the exciting events in our church calendar, and wonderful memories of summer holidays. And yet, for some of us, the memories are tinged with sadness as we remember those who will never be at another family event again. We live in the tension of holding on to memories that bring us joy and some that remind us of the joy we've lost.

The Christian act of remembrance moves us between the joys and loss we experience, from despair and sadness to joy and hope. That is what the psalmists do when they lament – they proclaim God's goodness in the midst of painful memories.

In our lifetimes, we will experience these movements often. This movement is enacted every Sunday when we gather around the Lord's table for Communion; we proclaim the Lord's death until He comes again. We move from death to hope!

There is another kind of remembering – the memories of what we have not done so well. The Book of Common Prayer (BCP) speaks of the misdoings that weigh heavily on us - the remembrance of them is grievous unto us; the burden of them is intolerable. The soul cries out, Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; for Thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake forgive us all that is past;

Our minds have the tendency to remember the not-so-good times. We focus on our failures and we look to the future through those lenses. This makes us fearful, anxious and hopeless about the days ahead. That is not godly remembrance.

As much as we are called to Remembrance, we must also allow the Spirit of God to help us to forget the guilt-ridden memories because God certainly chooses to: "I, even I, am He who blots out your transgressions for my own sake and remembers your sins no more."

And these are the times when we choose forgetfulness over remembrance:

"Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland".

This November, may God grant you the grace to remember His goodness and faithfulness to you and our community. And may you have the wisdom and the courage to forget what you need not carry any longer, so that your mind is opened to see the new things that the Lord is doing in you and amongst us.

Amen

Revd. Tolu George

Good News

In September, Churches Together organised a very successful Quiz Night at All Saints'.
We reported that £1400 was raised for the Parish Nursing Service in Croxley Green.
Now that the money has all been counted, we can report that they actually made £1600 which is even better!

RSPB Advice on Feeding the Birds

RSPB have asked us not to feed the birds until 1st November.

Should we be feeding them at all?

You might be shocked to read that 17 million UK households together spend £250 million on 150,000 tonnes of bird food annually.

Mike Toms, from BTO, says feeding birds can have benefits and unintended consequences.

Bird feeders need to be cleaned, disinfected and dried thoroughly every two weeks otherwise there is a risk of spreading disease.

The best bird feed comes from seasonal fruits, seeds and berries. Bird feeders encourage species like blue tit, house sparrow, starling, great tit and wood pigeon but they do make birds dependent on us providing their food.

A blue tit will fly 3km to get to a well-stocked bird-feeder. Bigger birds are now dominant over marsh tits and willow tits which used to be commonly-seen birds.

Bird feeding arises from our desire to help wildlife so we need to be thinking about how we can help all the species.

There is always a place for feeding birds when it is frosty or snowy as their food is not accessible.

Sunday Coffee Charity

We are supporting Assistance Dogs UK (ADUK) with our donations from Sunday Coffee for the next three months.

Assistance Dogs UK (ADUK) was established in the mid-1990s by a network of leaders from assistance dog organisations accredited by either Assistance Dogs International or the International Guide Dog Federation.

Although each organisation had their own specialism, they all shared a common challenge: assistance dog partnerships that were regularly experiencing access refusals and public misunderstanding. By working together, they believed they could create a stronger, more consistent response than any organisation could achieve alone.

The early years focused on collaboration within the sector. Member organisations shared knowledge, developed consistent approaches, and built trusted relationships that strengthened both individual organisations and the assistance dog community as a whole. That spirit of collaboration remains at the heart of everything that is done today.

As the recognised umbrella body for the UK assistance dog sector, their role has evolved beyond supporting their members. With a small dedicated staff and volunteer team, they now work with businesses, service providers, policymakers and other stakeholders to improve understanding of assistance dogs, promote good practice, and help remove barriers faced by people who are partnered with assistance dogs.

‘The assistance dog landscape continues to evolve, bringing new opportunities as well as new challenges. By bringing organisations and the wider sector together, championing standards and providing clear, trusted guidance, we continue to build on the vision that inspired our founders while responding to the needs of today and tomorrow.’

We all know the saying ‘a dog is a man’s best friend’ but there are so many dogs who are also ‘helpful friends’ who enable many people to get out and about, visit shops, restaurants, theatres, galleries and socialise with other people, who might otherwise be confined to their homes. Along with those dogs who are trained in health detection, hearing and guide dogs for the blind.

Remembering Cathy

On 1st September, All Saints' was absolutely packed with people who had come to celebrate and remember the life of our amazing pioneer Parish Nurse, Cathy Scarborough. Cathy had been the Parish Nurse in Croxley since before covid and had had such a big impact for so many residents, which was shown by the size of the congregation. Her quiet demeanour, calm presence, friendly smile and desire to help shone from her and helped her to succeed in this role, which brought together her nursing background and her Christian faith.

The service included beautiful memories from Cathy's dad and sons, Tom and Josh, and her friend Revd. Kate Picot, stories from members of the Parish Nursing Service and our new Parish Nurse, Julian, who shared her story of meeting Cathy and being recruited by her.

There were lots of laughs and smiles, as well as a lot of tears, as we listened and remembered our stories of time spent with Cathy.

It was a celebration of a life well lived, full of love, kindness and a desire to help people.

I got to know Cathy early in her time as Parish Nurse when she offered me help and support. We soon became firm friends and I became a volunteer to support some of the work that she was doing. Following a visit to The Kitchen with my Mum, she realised the difficulties faced by people with dementia whilst navigating everyday life. This led to her researching, questioning and deciding that we needed to try to make changes to improve the understanding of this condition in Croxley. This resulted in us meeting Hollie from Memory Support Hertfordshire and becoming a part of their pilot project. We are continuing this work and hope that it will make positive changes for those living with dementia.

Thank you, Cathy, for everything you did for us in Croxley. Your legacy lives on in many ways.

Parish Nursing Commissioning Service

Sunday 18th October

On a lovely Sunday afternoon, more than 60 members of the Croxley Green community, along with friends and family, gathered at the Baptist Church to celebrate a special occasion:the commissioning of our Parish Nurse, Julian, and Parish Nursing Volunteers Fran, Janet M, Janet S, Ursula and Wendy. Minister Steve of the Baptist Church led the service with the Parish Nursing Trustees officiating.

At the heart of the service was a simple message: 'All In', shortened to 'AI'. Julian explained that this vision reflects what Parish Nursing is all about: Wholistic care (Body, Soul and Mind) and making sure there is support for everyone in the community.

She spoke about the cancer project, funded by Macmillan, which helps patients, families and carers know they are not alone and that support is available close to home. She also spoke about the ongoing dementia work, funded by The National Lottery Community Fund. Part of this involves helping local businesses, churches and restaurants become dementia-friendly so that people living with dementia and those who care for them are treated with patience, respect and understanding and can keep taking part in everyday life. The generosity of well-wishers enables the Parish Nursing service to also offers support to people who are not affected by cancer or/and dementia, keeping that spirit of 'All In' at the heart of its work.

Minister Steve warmly invited everyone to get involved in this exciting project in three ways: by praying for the Parish Nursing service, telling people who might benefit about the support available or giving financially to help the work continue.

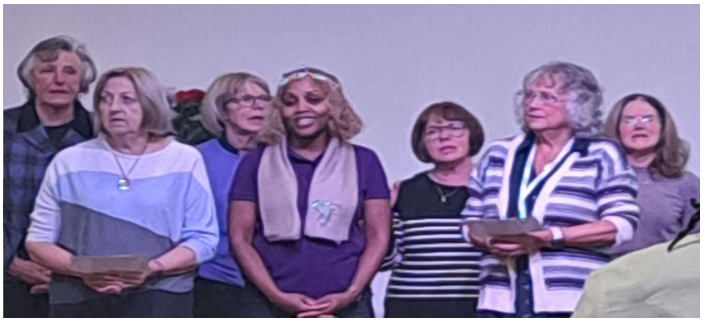

Deidre, Chair of the Trustees, and Julian emphasised that the Parish Nursing Service does not replace the NHS. but rather complements it. They work in partnership with other health agencies to support people in the Croxley Green community. The congregation also joined in a quiz, giving everyone a chance to learn more about Parish Nursing and the care it offers.

Readings, hymns and songs formed part of the celebration, alongside personal experiences shared by people who have received support in Croxley. Every church in Croxley was represented, and we were delighted to welcome the Parish Nursing Regional Coordinator, a Parish Nurse from Crawley and Cathy's family. Tea and cakes were enjoyed during the afternoon, adding a warm, welcoming touch to the occasion.

It was also an opportunity to recognise where Parish Nursing in Croxley Green began, with the steering group and Cathy Scarborough as the first Parish Nurse, and to celebrate the work that continues today. With only 84 Parish Nurses in the country, we feel very fortunate to have one here in our community.

For more information please see the flyer on the next page.

CONGRATULATIONS to Chris Fagan who celebrates his 80th birthday in November. Happy Birthday from all of us, Chris.

Christmas Market - Saturday 21st November

The Christmas Market is fast approaching so please make sure the date is in your diary and invite your friends and family to what has been said is one of the top 10 Christmas Markets in Hertfordshire!

If you are able to offer an hour or two to help on one of the Church stalls, including refreshments, or if you can help set up or clear away afterwards, please speak to Ann Palmer or myself, it would be much appreciated.

Donations for the general tombola (bottles, either alcoholic or soft drinks, toiletries, unwanted gifts or unused items which could make a good prize), chocolate tombola (any small or large chocolate items), and children's tombola (colouring pens/pencils/books, small unused toys) are still needed so if you are able to bring some things in, please leave them in the box at the back of church or in the office; the more we have for these stalls the better.

Finally, if you are able to bake a large cake for us to cut up and sell for refreshments, please let me know or add it to the list at the back of Church. Please label it with ingredients.

Grand Prize Draw Tickets

We have Grand Prize draw tickets for sale so please collect some from Ann or Lyndon and sell them to friends, colleagues, neighbours and family. There are some great prizes to win, including a 1st prize of £250 cash, and the money all goes to support the work of the Church. This makes up a large part of the profit for the Christmas Market so please help us to sell as many as possible.

Upcoming Events

We have, as always, got lots of services and events coming up before Christmas so please put them in your diary.

Sunday 29th November – Advent Service at 6pm, followed by wine and nibbles

Saturday 5th December – Parish Council Christmas Market outside the library. We are having our usual mulled wine stall so please come and support us, either by helping us for an hour, or buying some mulled wine.

Sunday 6th December – Christingle Service at 4pm. Activities in the hall, including mulled wine, mince pies and making your Christingle, followed by a very informal service in Church.

Sunday 13th December – Carol Service – 6pm, followed by mulled wine and mince pies.

Janet Martin

Christmas Post Box

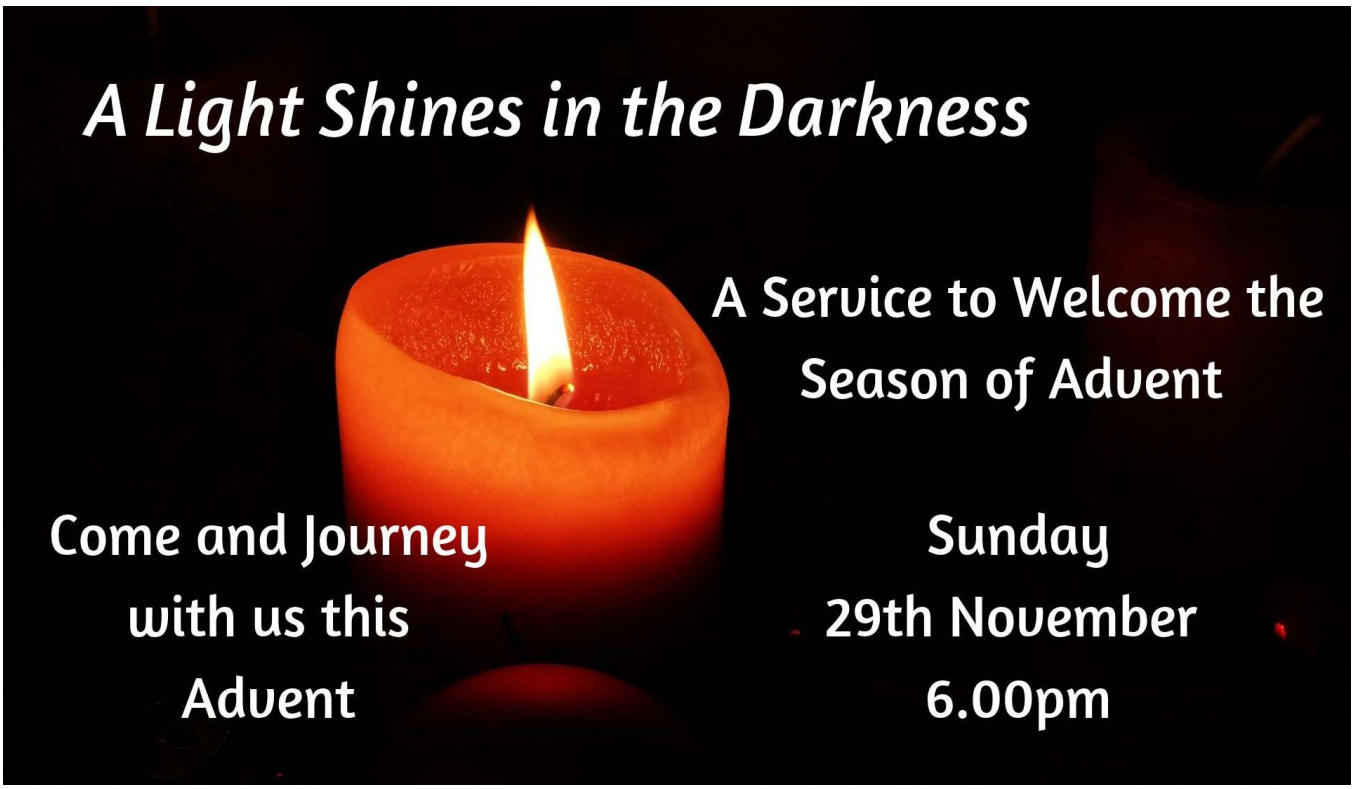

The Christmas Post Box will be at the back of Church between Sunday 29th November and Sunday 13th December. This is for any cards for addresses in Croxley Green only.

Please make sure the envelopes have the full name and address of the recipient clearly written so that they can be delivered.

If you are able to deliver cards in your road or locally, please sign up when the list goes out at the back of Church.

We suggest a donation of 30p per card; please put this in the post box with your cards.

All proceeds will go to Shelter.

All Saints' Church
Fifth Annual Beer Festival

On the weekend of 9th-11th October, the Church was buzzing with the chatter and laughter of the many people who came from far and wide to attend our Beer Festival.
Friday evening was so busy that there was not even 'standing room only' and the Hall was filled too.
Saturday was also busy and an Irish Band played during the evening which created a great atmosphere.
We did not run out of beer this year so we were open on Sunday afternoon and, although last orders was at 4pm, the last few people did not leave until after 5!

Food was served on Friday and Saturday and that proved to be very popular too.

The event was a huge success and thanks must go to Ben Guest and Sam Beard for co-ordinating everything and working hard for the whole weekend, Scott and his team from The Anchor, Tap and Bottle who organised setting up the beer, organising the bar and serving, Wendy and Janet who organised and cooked the food. Thanks must also go to the team of people who served the food, the people who sold the glasses and greeted everyone at the door and the many people who moved the furniture to set everything up. It truly was a magnificent team effort of everyone working together.

We are already being asked the dates[#] of the Sixth Annual Beer Festival and planning will start very soon so watch this space!

Smile Lines from Parish Pump

Still waiting

A pious man, who had reached the age of 105, suddenly stopped going to church. Alarmed by the old fellow's absence after so many years of faithful attendance, the minister went to see him.

He found him in excellent health, so the minister asked, "How come after all these years we don't see you at services any more?"

The old man lowered his voice. "When I got to be 90, I expected God to take me any day. But then I got to be 95, then 100, then 105. So, I figured that God is very busy and must've forgotten about me, and now I don't want to remind Him!"

Story

It was Dad's turn to read young Jamie a bedtime story. After 20 minutes, Mum called up the stairs, "Is he asleep?"

Young Jamie called softly back, "Yes, finally."

Died in the services

Little Alex was staring up at the large brass plaque that hung on the side wall of the church. The plaque was covered with names, and they seemed to fascinate the youngster. "All those names," he said to the minister. "Who are they?"

"Well, they were people who used to go to this church," explained the minister. "This is a memorial to all the young men and women who died in the services."

Soberly, they stood together, staring at the large plaque. Little Alex's voice was barely audible when he asked, "Which service, the 9 o'clock, or the 11 o'clock?"

What bishops do

We were celebrating the 100th anniversary of our church, and several former pastors and the bishop were in attendance. At one point, our minister had the children gather at the altar for a talk about the importance of the day. He began by asking, 'Does anyone know what the bishop does?'

There was silence. Finally, one little boy ventured: "Isn't he the one who moves diagonally?"

Cats and teenagers

Neither teenagers nor cats turn their heads when you call them by name.

No matter how much you do for them, it is never enough.

Cats rarely deign to walk with you when outside, and the same is true of teenagers.

No cat or teenager shares your taste in music.

Cats and teenagers can suddenly get ‘hissy’, without any known cause.

Cats and teenagers can lie on the living-room sofa for hours on end without moving, barely breathing.

Cats have nine lives. Teenagers live as if they did.

Cats and teenagers yawn in exactly the same manner, communicating that ultimate human ecstasy – utter boredom.

Cats and teenagers do not improve anyone’s furniture.

Cats and teenagers are known to creep home at all hours of the night. Neither will tell you where they’ve been.

So, if you must raise teenagers, it is a good idea to follow instructions as for cats: Just put food out at regular intervals and do not make any sudden moves in their direction. When they make up their minds, they will finally come to you for some affection and comfort, and it will be a triumphant moment for all concerned

16th November Saint Margaret of Scotland

Some women have power, and some women are good. When a woman with power is also good, she can achieve an astonishing amount.

Margaret of Scotland has been called 'The Pearl of Scotland', but she began life in Hungary about 1045. She was born to the expatriate English prince Edward the Exile, and so was an English princess.

The family returned to Wessex in 1057, when she was 13, and following the death of King Harold II at the Battle of Hastings in 1066, her brother Edgar Aetheling should have been King of England, but he was never crowned. Instead, the family fled north, to Scotland, where she was married to Malcolm III of Scotland by 1070. As a Scottish queen she went on to become mother of three kings of Scotland, and of a queen consort of England.

Margaret was a Christian, and became a good friend of Lanfranc, a future archbishop of Canterbury. Her biographer tells of how she read narratives from the Bible to her husband, thus helping to 'civilise' him. He was illiterate, but so admired her reading, that he had her books decorated with gold and silver. She was also credited with helping her youngest son, the future King David I of Scotland, towards becoming a just and holy ruler.

Margaret introduced the worship and practice of the Church of Rome into Scotland. She also wanted to help the many pilgrims travelling in Scotland, and so she established a ferry across the Firth of Forth, which is where the towns South Queensferry and North Queensferry got their names.

Margaret performed many charitable works for the poor, and she interceded for the release of English exiles who had been forced into serfdom following the Norman conquest. She also began the restoration of Iona Abbey.

In private life, Margaret spent much of her time in prayer, using a cave on the banks of the Tower Burn in Dunfermline as a place of devotion and prayers. St Margaret's Cave is still there today, covered beneath a municipal car park.

Margaret died in 1093, and in 1250 Pope Innocent IV canonised her. Her relics were dispersed after the Scottish Reformation, but at one time Mary, Queen of Scots, owned her head.

Remembrance Sunday is the day we remember the sacrifice of those who gave their lives so that we could live in peace, it mirrors what Christ did for us when he gave his life so that we could live in peace with God.

Remember
the words Jesus said:
"It is more blessed to give than to receive."
Colossians 3:25

Jesus said:
"No one can have greater love than to give his life for his friends."

Advent and Christmas Services 2026

29th November - Advent Sunday Service @ 6.00pm
Welcoming Advent a Service of Advent readings, poems and hymns.

6th December - Christingle Service @ 4.00pm
Children create a Christingle, an orange decorated with candles, fruits and ribbons to symbolise the Christian story. Carols are sung and the Christmas story is told.

13th December - Carol Service @ 6.00pm
Come and enjoy our traditional Carol Service with mulled wine and mince pies afterwards.

16th December - Quiet Church @ 7.30pm
Take time out in the busyness of Advent and join us for a period of quiet candlelit contemplation.

24th December - Family Crib Service @ 4.00pm
Do come and join us for our Family Crib Service with carols.

24th December - Christmas Eve - Midnight Service @ 11.30pm
Join us for our traditional Christmas Eve midnight service and communion.

25th December - Christmas Day Service @ 9.45am
Celebrate the birth of Jesus at our Christmas Day Service.
